

NKULEE DUBE

THE PRINCESS OF ETHNO-RAGGA AND SOUL

READY TO RELEASE HER DEBUT ALBUM WORLDWIDE

SHE'S GOT PRESENCE! SHE'S GOT SWAG! SHE'S GOT TALENT! SHE'S GOT A DEBUT ALBUM AND A HECTIC TOURING SCHEDULE AROUND THE WORLD

No female artist has managed to fuse ethno-soul, jazz with reggae in one song as this 25-year old singer, songwriter, performer, Nkulee Dube has done in such a short space of time since entering this challenging and yet exciting industry.

Born to the family of a music legend, Nkulee Dube has big shoes to fill to preserve and sustain the name of her late father, Lucky Dube. A powerful performer, just like her father - Nkulee is the one to watch. She glides and slides with ease in between her songs as she traverses between ragga and ethno-soul as if she was born on stage.

Since the release of her debut album in June 2011 the demand for Nkulee Dube has seen her touring 4 continents and performing to critical acclaim both locally and internationally. Between June 2011 and January 2012, she has performed 25 shows in the USA, Canada, Europe, Africa, and the South Pacific.
